Articles of Association
of
Random Consulting Limited

The Regulations contained in Parts I and II of the First Schedule (hereinafter referred to as "the Schedule") of the Companies Act 1995 (hereinafter called "the Act"), shall apply to the Company save as in so far as they are excluded or varied hereby. Regulations 14, 36, 38, 40, 41, 45, 48, 51, 57-63, (inclusive), 81 and 82 of Part I of the Schedule and Regulations 1 and 3 of Part II of the Schedule shall not apply to the Company.

Interpretation

In these regulations the word "person" is deemed to include any corporate body, firm, partnership, or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate unless the context otherwise requires or unless such interpretation is contrary to law. Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number and vice versa and words importing the masculine gender only shall include the feminine gender.

Share Capital and Shares

1. Unless otherwise provided for in terms of issue each Ordinary Share in the Company shall give the right to one vote at any General Meeting of the Company PROVIDED that no member shall be entitled to vote unless all calls payable by him or due from him in respect of his shares in the Company have been paid.
2. Any shares (whether part of the original capital or any increase in capital) before they are issued are to be offered to the existing holders of Ordinary Shares in the Company in proportion as nearly as may be to the number of Ordinary Shares held by each such holder of Ordinary Shares.
3. The shares are issued in the holders' names and numbered consecutively. In respect of a share held jointly by several persons, the name of only one (1) of such persons shall be entered into the register of members, such person shall be nominated by the joint holders and shall for all intents and purposes be deemed to be the holder of the shares so held and shall be responsible for any calls made thereon.
4. The Company is authorised to issue preference shares, with whatever denomination used and any redemption of such shares shall take place at par with no fixed date of redemption in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1995 and subject to any specific conditions which may be included in any extraordinary resolution approving such redemption of shares. The said preference shares shall carry no voting rights.
5. Members may pledge their shares in the company in favour of any person for any obligation.

Transfer and Transmission of Shares

 - a. Any holder of Ordinary Shares wishing to transfer his shares must first offer them for sale to the other holders of Ordinary Shares at their "fair value". The other holders of Ordinary Shares shall have the right to purchase such shares and should more than one (1) holder of Ordinary Shares desire to take up the offer such shares shall be distributed amongst them in proportion as nearly as may be to the number of shares held by each.
 - b. Such offer is to be made through the Board of Directors of the Company, which within thirty (30) days of receipt of such offer is to transmit it by registered mail to the holders of Ordinary Shares in the Company, together with the Auditor's report establishing the "fair value" of such shares, allowing each holder of Ordinary Shares fifteen (15) days to indicate the number, if any, he is willing to purchase.

Any holder of Ordinary Shares not replying to the offer by registered mail within the specified period will be considered to have declined the said offer.

- c. In the event of the whole of the said offer not being taken up by the holders of Ordinary Shares of the Company under the preceding sub-article of this article the proposing transferor may at any time within three (3) months after the expiration of the said fifteen (15) days, sell the shares not taken up to any person, at a price not lower than the "fair value".
- d. Transmission "causa mortis" shall be allowed to the spouse or children of the deceased member and no right of pre-emption shall exist in such an event.
- e. Notwithstanding what has been said in paragraph (a) of this article, shares are freely transferable between a shareholder and his/her spouse and children.
- f. "Fair value" in this article shall mean the value of the shares given by the Auditors of the Company on the basis of the last audited accounts.

Acquisition of Own Shares

- 7. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company is authorised to purchase its own shares.

Issue of Fresh Shares

- 8.
 - a. The company in general meeting may by means of an ordinary resolution authorise the Board of Directors to issue shares up to a maximum amount of the company's authorised share capital over a period of five (5) years.
 - b. The Company may, at a general meeting, renew such authorisation for further five (5) year periods.

General Meetings

- 9. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company shall in each year hold an annual general meeting at such time and place as the directors shall appoint.
 - a. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened by the directors on the requisition of any member.
 - b. The requisition must state the objects of the meeting and must be signed by the requisitionist and be deposited at the registered office of the Company.
 - c. If the directors fail, for any reason, to convene the meeting within twenty-one (21) days from the date of the deposit of the requisition, the requisitionist may himself convene the meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are to be convened by the directors.

Notice of General Meetings

10. A general meeting of the Company shall be called by fourteen (14) days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it be given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting, and in case of special business, the general nature of that business, and shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned, to such persons as are, under the regulations of the Company and under the Act, entitled to receive such notice from the Company.

Provided that a meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it has not been convened as aforesaid, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat.

11. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.
12. A notice may be given by the Company to any member either personally or by sending it by registered mail to his registered address in Malta or abroad. In the case of members resident outside Malta notice shall be given simultaneously by telex, telegram or telefax to such number/address as he shall have furnished to the Company. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected in the case of a notice of a meeting at the expiration of forty-eight hours after the letter containing the same is posted and in any other case at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.
13. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in the manner hereinbefore authorised to:-
- a. every registered member;
 - b. to each director of the Company; and
 - c. the auditor for the time being of the Company.

No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.

Proceedings at General Meetings

14. Unless otherwise expressly provided by law, all business shall be deemed extraordinary that is (i) transacted at an extraordinary general meeting; or (ii) that is transacted at any annual general meeting with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the directors and auditors and the appointment of and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.
15. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting other than that stated in the notice convening it and unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; any member or number of members present in person or by proxy, and having the right to attend and vote at such meeting and holding alone, or as the case may be, between them at least hundred per cent (100%) of the nominal value of the shares conferring such right shall constitute a quorum.
16. The chairman, if any, of the Board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company. If there is no such chairman, or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, the members present shall elect one of the directors to be chairman of the meeting.
17. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Votes of Members

18. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote and on poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder. On a poll, votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
19. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
 - a. By the Chairman;
 - b. By any member present in person or by proxy
20. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing and shall be either (i) presented to the Chairman at the meeting at which it is to be used or (ii) if there is no chairman in office deposited at the registered office of the company not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote. A proxy need not be a member of the Company and in no case may a member of the Company appoint more than one proxy.
21. An extraordinary resolution shall be deemed to have been validly carried if:
 - a. it has been taken at a general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution as an extraordinary resolution and the text of the resolution and principal purpose thereof has been duly given in such notice; and
 - b. it has been passed by a member or by a number of members having the right to attend and vote at any such meeting holding alone or, as the case may be, in aggregate not less than hundred per cent (100%) in nominal value of the shares conferring that right.
22. An ordinary resolution shall be passed by a member or members having the right to attend and vote holding in the aggregate hundred per cent (100%) in nominal value of the shares represented and entitled to vote at the meeting.

Companies acting by Representatives at Meetings

23. Any company which is a member of the Company may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of members of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could itself exercise.

Powers of General Meetings

24. Decisions upon the following matters shall be taken by the Company in general meeting:
 - a. approval of annual accounts, directors' report and auditor's report.
 - b. declaration of dividends which shall in no case, however, exceed the amount, if any, recommended by the board of directors.

- c. increase and reduction of issued and authorised capital.
- d. acquisition of own shares.
- e. alterations, revocations and additions to the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association.
- f. appointment and removal of the directors and auditors, provided that the first auditors of the Company may be appointed by the Board of directors at any time before the first General Meeting of the company at which the annual accounts shall be laid, and the auditors so appointed shall hold office until the conclusion of that meeting, unless they are previously removed and others are appointed in their place by the Company in General Meeting.
- g. fixing of the remuneration payable to the directors and to the auditors of the Company, provided that the remuneration of the first auditors of the Company shall be fixed by the Board of directors of the Company.
- h. in general decisions on all matters which in terms of the Act or of these Articles are reserved to the general meeting of the Company or which the Board of directors may from time to time place before it.

Provisions applicable to Single-Member Companies

25. a. Where a company becomes a single member company, the single member shall exercise the powers of the general meeting of the shareholders of the company and the decisions taken by him in this capacity shall be recorded as minutes of the general meeting and the provisions of the Act and these Articles, regulating general meetings shall be construed accordingly. The 'decisions' referred to in this subsection shall be deemed to be resolutions of the Company for the purposes of the application of the provisions of the Act;
- Provided that the provisions of this Clause shall not prejudice the rights of the auditors of the company to receive notice of, attend and be heard at any general meeting of the Company and the rights granted to persons as are, by the articles of the Company, entitled to receive notices of, attend and be heard at general meetings of the Company.
- b. The single member shall record in writing all agreements between him and the Company as represented by him in a minute book kept by the Company specifically for the purpose;
 - c. When a Company ceases to be a single member company, it shall within 14 days, deliver to the Registrar of Companies for registration a notice specifying the fact that it is no longer a single member company and the provisions of this clause relating to single member companies shall not apply any further.
 - d. Article 5 relating to the Transfer and Transmission of shares shall not apply in the case of a single member company. In fact, any single member in a company may freely transfer his shareholding to any other third party at the fair value meaning the value of the shares to be transferred given by the Auditors of the Company on the basis of the last audited accounts.

Directors

26. a. The administration and management of the Company affairs are entrusted to a Board of Directors consisting of the number of Directors mentioned in the Memorandum of Association of the Company to be appointed in terms of Clause seven (7) of the Memorandum of Association of the Company.

- b. A Director need not be a member of the Company.
- c. Each Director shall have one vote.

Term of office of Directors

27. A director shall hold office until such time as he resigns or is removed from the Board of Directors by an ordinary resolution of the members in General Meeting.

Borrowing Powers of Directors

28. The directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, and to hypothecate or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock, and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligations of the Company or of any third party.

Powers and Duties of Directors

29. a. The business of the Company shall be managed by the directors, who may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Act or by these Articles required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting subject nevertheless to any provisions as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting; but no regulation made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.
- b. Without prejudice to the general powers conferred above, and the other powers conferred by these Articles, it is hereby expressly declared that the directors shall have the following powers, that is to say, power:-
- i. to make fresh issue of shares within the Company's authorised capital provided such issue is authorised by the company's articles and by an ordinary resolution of the company in general meeting; or where no authorisation exists in the company's Articles where such issue is authorised by an extraordinary resolution of the company in general meeting;
 - ii. to make calls in respect of any amount unpaid on any shares;
 - iii. to appoint and at their discretion remove or suspend such managers, officers, agents or servants as they may from time to time think fit and to determine their powers and duties and to fix their salaries and emoluments;
 - iv. to institute, conduct, defend, compromise, or abandon any legal proceedings by or against the Company or its officers, or otherwise concerning the affairs of the Company and also to compromise and allow time for payment or satisfaction of any debts due, and of any claims or demands by or against the Company and to designate the Company's representative for such purpose or purposes;
 - v. to bind the Company vis-à-vis third parties and third parties vis-à-vis the Company and to determine who shall be entitled to sign on behalf of the company cheques, bills, notes, receipts, acceptances, endorsements, releases, contracts, and other documents.
 - vi. to convene at any time general meetings of the Company.

Proceedings Of Directors

30. a. The directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings, as they think fit.
- b. Meetings of the directors shall take place in Malta or, with the consent of all the directors, abroad.
- c. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a simple majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes on any motion, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- d. A director may, and the secretary on a written requisition of a director shall, at any time summon a meeting of the directors. Notice of meetings of directors shall be given at least seven (7) days before the date of the meeting to all the directors. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of directors to any director for the time being absent from Malta.

Such notices shall be given by means of registered letter. It shall not be necessary to give notice of an adjourned meeting.

31. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the directors shall be a majority of the directors in office at the time or should there only be one director in office at any time, that director shall alone constitute a quorum.

Provided that if no quorum is present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other date at the same time and place or to such other time and place as the directors present shall determine and if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present, the director or directors present shall constitute a quorum.

32. Any director may by notice in writing under his hand served upon the Company appoint any person as an alternate director to attend and vote in his place at any meeting of the directors at which he is not personally present. Every such appointment shall be effective and the following provisions shall apply in connection therewith:
- a. Every alternate director while he holds office as such shall be entitled to attend and to exercise all the rights and privileges of his appointor at all such meetings for which such alternate director has been appointed and at which his appointor is not personally present.
- b. Every such alternate director shall ipso facto vacate office if and when the director appointing him ceases for any reason to be a director or removes the alternate director from office as such by notice in writing under his hand served upon the Company.
- c. No alternate director shall be entitled as such to receive any remuneration from the Company.
- d. A director may act as alternate director for another director and shall be entitled to vote for such other director as well as on his own account, and for the purpose of determining the quorum he shall be counted in both his said capacities.
- e. A resolution in writing signed by all the directors in accordance with article 66 of the First Schedule to the Act may be taken by means of several documents in like form signed separately.

Secretary

33. The directors shall appoint a secretary for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit, and any secretary so appointed may be removed by them.

Provided that it shall be the duty of the directors to take all reasonable steps to ensure that the company secretary is a person who appears to them to have the requisite knowledge and experience to discharge the functions of company secretary.
